Preparing for the Auction

- Available properties are posted online at www.tax-sale.info as early as June of each year.
- Create a free account to view details and photos for each property. Enter deed and other contact information online before the auction to cut your wait time in half on auction day.
- You should thoroughly research and visit property that you plan to bid on before attending the auction.
- The County Treasurer sells property based on the assessed legal description only. Any personal property or other items not physically attached to the land remain the property of the previous owner and are not included in auction lots.
- You will not be allowed to bid on parcels located in a county in which you owe outstanding property taxes. Please confirm all property taxes are paid before the auction takes place.
- Review the full auction rules at www.tax-sale.info/forms/Standard-Rules-.pdf

The Auction Process

- Arrive at the auction approximately 30 minutes before the stated start time to register.
- Bidders who pre-register online must still check in with the auction clerk but will typically be ready in half the time of those who don't pre-register.
- You will be assigned a bidder number and bid card to use during the auction.
- Auctions take place both live in person and online. You will be bidding against other floor bidders as well as online and absentee bidders throughout the auction.
- You can bid online from home if you choose. However, we recommend that you attend the auction in person if you are able to avoid technological or other issues.
- The bidding process is explained by the auctioneer in detail before the sale so don't arrive late!
- Once you're done bidding, you can checkout immediately. There is no need to wait for the auction to conclude.
